Respondent.)

Petitioner, United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of North Carolina and pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby gives the Court notice that petitioner is voluntarily dismissing the Certification of a Sexually Dangerous Person against respondent, Larry Walker.

Respondent is serving a life sentence pursuant his 1983 conviction for rape within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States. On June 8, 2007, the United States Parole Commission ordered respondent's release on parole, which was to be effective November 23, 2007. On November 20, 2007, the United States, pursuant to lawful procedures, certified respondent as a sexually dangerous person under the Adam Walsh Act, as codified in 18 U.S.C. § 4248. (D.E. #1). The certification stayed respondent's release on parole. See 18 U.S.C. § 4248(a). Thereafter, on June 24, 2008, the United States parole Commission reopened respondent's case and suspended its decision to release respondent on parole.

Based upon the above information and the United States' ongoing investigation into this case, the United States voluntarily dismisses its Certification of a Sexually Dangerous Person against respondent. Notwithstanding this voluntary dismissal, respondent will remain incarcerated in service of his life sentence until further action, if any, by the United States Parole Commission.

WHEREFORE, the United States gives this Court notice that it voluntarily dismisses the Certification of a Sexually Dangerous Person against respondent, Larry Walker.

Respectfully submitted, this the 21st day of October, 2011.

THOMAS G. WALKER
